Dear Jim:

I have received your note of June 22, 1984 which forwarded the handsome plaque commemorating the dedication of the Defense Intelligence Analysis Center. Even though I wasn't able to be with you for the event, I do appreciate having a memento of the occasion. Thank you for your thoughtfulness. It goes without saying that the Defense Intelligence Agency has our continuing support.

Yours,

William J. Casey

Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

On 23 May 1984, Secretary Weinberger presented the dedication address at the dedication ceremony for the Defense Intelligence Analysis Center. Although your busy schedule did not permit you to participate with us in the ceremony, I would like you to have a memento of the occasion and a token of our appreciation for your continuing support. The larger plate on the enclosed plaque is from a section of the exterior wall material of the Center.

Sincerely,
